

Predocloral Dental Student Merit Award for Outstanding Achievement in Community Dentistry

The American Association of Public Health Dentistry (AAPHD) invites your School/College to participate in the annual Predocloral Dental Student Merit Award for Outstanding Achievement in Community Dentistry. We hope you will choose to nominate student(s) for this competition. The awards will be presented during AAPHD's Annual Business meeting which will be held during the 2025 National Oral Health Conference® in Orlando, FL.

Each School/College of Dentistry may submit a maximum of two (2) separate nominations for this award. The nominees(s) must have completed their project prior to graduation. Those nominees whose projects were completed during their fifth academic year will be judged with the graduate student submissions.

Each project should be an oral health program/research carried out in a community by the student(s).

Project components and submission requirements can be found below. Abstracts to be considered for the AAPHD Student Merit Award program should not be submitted a second time for the General Poster Session.

If there are any questions please contact info@aaphd.org.

Project Components and Submission Requirements for the Predoctoral Dental Student Merit Award, 2025

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

- All material must be submitted electronically by visiting the NOHC Abstract Submission Site. No manual submissions will be accepted. Nominations will not be considered after the submission deadline.
- Be sure to complete all the submission tasks – you may save your submission and return to the form as needed until the deadline. After the deadline date, no changes can be made.
- A submission is not considered complete if you do not complete all tasks. All tasks must have a green checkmark indicator before each task. The submitter will receive an immediate email acknowledgement once the submission is complete. Only completed submissions will be reviewed for consideration.
- It is the responsibility of the person submitting the abstract to verify the correct spelling and email address for all authors' email addresses when the abstract is submitted. NOHC is not responsible if authors do not receive email communications as a result of an incorrect email address provided during the submission.
- NOHC is not responsible for incorrect information in program material due to incorrect information provided by the submitter.
- Reports must be submitted by 11:45 pm EST, Wednesday, December 12, 2024. No exceptions. Notification of selection will be made in February 2025. Any questions related to the submission process may be directed to the NOHC office at abstracts@nationaloralhealthconference.com.

II. COMPONENTS FOR ONLINE SUBMISSIONS

    - Background information
    - List of the program’s objectives and the procedures used
    - Summary of results
    - Discussion of the positive impact on the community’s oral health
    - Conclusions
    - Photographs, figures, forms/questionnaires or illustrated diagrams should be included where appropriate.
  - b. Cover Page. A cover page that includes the following contact information for each student author/nominee: full name, mailing address, telephone number and e-mail.
  - c. Letter of Nomination. A letter from the nominating faculty person outlining student(s)’ role in the project as well as each student’s class level in the dental school.
  - d. IRB. If the project involved human subject research, a copy of the letter from the relevant Institutional Review Board must be included.
5. E-mail confirmation of the submission.

III. EVALUATION

Each project will be evaluated by multiple reviewers, according to the following six guidelines:

- Originality and design of the project
- Description of results and conclusions
- Quality of the results (data) from the project
- Level of student responsibility and leadership
- Community value of the project
- Demonstrated mastery of the subject

IV. AWARDS

First, second, and third place award winners are selected from submitted projects which have met the reviewers’ guidelines. These winners are required to present their projects as a part of the General Poster Session on Monday, April 7, 2025 at the 2025 National Oral Health Conference®, a joint meeting of the American Association of Public Health Dentistry (AAPHD) and the Association of State and Territorial Dental Directors (ASTDD). Award winners will be recognized and receive their award at the AAPHD Annual Business meeting on Sunday, April 6, 2025. Winners will also receive complimentary membership in the American Association of Public Health Dentistry for 2025 and electronic access for one year to the Journal of Public Health Dentistry (JPHD).

Please note: In order to receive the cash award the winner is required to attend and present their poster at the 2025 National Oral Health Conference®. Only one complimentary registration per project will be awarded and given to the individual who has been identified as the presenting author on the report. If no member of the project team is able to attend the 2025 NOHC, they will only receive the plaque, AAPHD membership and electronic access to the JPHD. The submitting author will receive the aforementioned items unless otherwise noted.

FIRST PLACE AWARD. The First Place Award winner will receive complimentary registration and a cash award of $500 to help defray the cost of attending the National Oral Health Conference®.
